

Global disaster medicine:

Ebola and trauma care with limited resources

From lunch to lunch March 25 and 26, 2015

Last day to register: March 6

Day 1 How good were we?

The Swedish response to the 2014/2015 West African Ebola epidemic: Response challenges and lessons for the future

Day 2 Care of the injured in resource scarce settings

Trauma and mass casualty care, critical care with limited resources

What can the Swedish trauma study learn from research on the care of injured in resource scarce settings?

Arranged by Kunskapscentrum Katastrofmedicin KI for Svensk Katastrofmedicinsk Föreningen (SKMF)

Information:
dell.saulnier@ki.se

March 25-26, 2014 | 12.00 pm–12.00 pm
Samuelsson Hall, Tomtebodavägen 6, Karolinska Institutet

Participants with affiliation, representing landstinget, authority, or other agency, register here

Participants without affiliation participating as private persons, register here

Karolinska Institutet

For more information, please contact dell.saulnier@ki.se

Participants with affiliation are those who are representing landstinget, authority, university or other agency. Delta med institutionell tillhörighet, representerande landsting, myndighet, universitet eller annan organisation, registrera er här

Participants without affiliation are individuals who will participate as private persons. Delta utan institutionell tillhörighet, som deltar som privatperson, registrera er här

Participants are responsible for their own accommodation. Nearby hotels include Hotel Norrtull, Elite Palace Hotel, or Best Western Time Hotel.

There will be poster sessions on Swedish research in disaster medicine. If you would like to present a poster, please email dell.saulnier@ki.se for information.

Wednesday, March 25 th
11.30 – 13.00	Registration and lunch
13.00 – 13.15	Welcome and opening of the conference	Hans Ivarsson (SKMF) Johan von Schreeb (KcK KI)
13.15 – 17.00	Theme 1: Swedish response to the 2014/2015 West African ebola epidemic: How good were we? Response challenges and lessons for the future	MODERATORS: Anneli Eriksson (KcK KI) Helena Nordenstedt (KI)
13.15 – 14.30	Introduction and presentations from agencies involved in the Swedish ebola response	MSB, MSF, Socialstyrelsen, Red Cross
14.30 – 15.00	Coffee, poster presentations: ongoing disaster medicine research
15.00 – 17.00	Panel discussion	MSB, MSF, Socialstyrelsen, Folkhälsomyndigheten, Red Cross
17.00 – 18.15	General assembly for (SKMF årsmöte) 2015 Svensk katastrofmedicinsk förening, 2015 scholarship award	SKMF board
19.00	Dinner at Restaurang Stationen (Gävlegatan 22)

Thursday, March 26 th
8.30 – 11.30	Theme 2: Care of injured in resource scarce settings. Research, state-of-the-art and relevance to Swedish disaster preparedness and trauma care	MODERATOR Andreas Wladis (Capio, St Görans sjukhus)
8.30 – 9.45	Presentations: Trauma care in India, identifying the most critically ill Damage control surgery and mass casualty trauma care Critical care with limited resources	Martin Gerdin (KI) Louis Riddez (KUS) Tim Baker (KI)
9.45 – 10.15	Coffee, poster presentations: ongoing disaster medicine research
10.15 – 11.30	Panel discussion: What can Swedish Trauma study (Traumautredningen) learn from research on care of injured in resource scarce settings?	Presenters, Socialstyrelsen and panelist
11.30 – 12.15	Global disaster medicine/humanitarian assistance - a new emerging professional discipline? Definitions, scope, practice Training needs, research and links to Swedish disaster preparedness and response	Kunskapscentrum Katastrofmedicin, KI
12.15 – 12.30	Wrap up and farewell
12.30	Lunch

